

LIFE GOES ON, ON A SIMPLE WAY, THE TRUE WAY

Let me be here by my self
I'm must learn when I am lost
Foreseeing my live and seeing what I became Ending this fight and then I will be done

Going so fast, going so far, far, far away
On this world were can I stay
Everyday the same feeling
Some how I reach my soul my believing

On the other side
No one says everybody knows

On this side
No one knows everybody sees

As much they want to see

Simple as my love is forever
I'm able to dream
Ma way, in the truth between
People say, they see, they pray
Lies go on and on until
Ever is forever, and I will never look back again

Without you I will be just me
At this point I waiting for the moon to rise down on me
Yes you will see my face smiling back you ma live

The light is getting stronger
How will I see you?
Entering ma soul I must catch before you fall

There is only one way
Run as far as you can
Until you see the space between
Ending this earth and starting the sky

Why, why is no more a question?
Answering that scream will only delay the future
You mustn't be afraid to fall, say goodbye, because you know how to fly...
