

The Flow of Life

---

The river flows to the sea,
Huge stones in his way,
Endless obstacles cannot stop he,

Flow to me my rising star,
Let me embrace you in the skies,
Others may try to push us far,
Winds of love will end the lies,

One day we will be together,
Forever until nothing else matter,

Living and dreaming I will do,
Ignoring the rules of god or man,
For you I will stand and hold as I can,
Even if it takes all my life, I will still flow to you.
